

Karen Witt visits Cottage Inspirations

Join Cottage Inspirations on Friday, July 10th, for a great summer day of fun and quilting! We are pleased to have Karen Witt, of Reproduction Quilts of Winchester, KY, offer an afternoon workshop from 2-5 pm and a Trunk Show from 7-9.

Karen has been actively quilting for over twenty-five years. Her quilts have been exhibited and have received numerous awards at national shows including American Quilters Society (AQS) and National Quilting Association (NQA). For the past several years, she has chosen to specialize in the history of quilting, the use of reproduction fabrics and the creation of quilts with historic significance. She currently dates and appraises quilts, lectures, teaches and designs reproduction patterns. Her original designs and quilts are frequently featured in The Quilter, Quiltmania, Fabric Trends, Easy Quilts and Love of Quilting.

In her workshop, she will teach a table runner class showing hand and machine piecing techniques featuring the Churn Dash, Log Cabin and House Blocks. You will listen to music from the era and discuss the lifestyles of women during the period – their clothing, culture, housing and, of course, quilts! Her goal is for you to be immersed in the time period and enjoy the experience of making a reproduction quilt.

Workshop 2-5 pm $20.00

A supply list will be provided at time of paid registration.

Kits will also be available.

Pre-registration for the workshop is required.

Trunk Show 7-9 pm $10.00
